Lithuanian Sea Museum implemented projects co-financed by the Lithuanian Council of Culture and Klaipeda Municipality in 2019

Project	Description of Project
Facing the Sea	Lithuanian painters' Audrius Gražys, Miglė Kosinskaitė, and Svajūnas Armonas exhibition created in the Museum, suggesting an artist's view to the sea.
Sea Unites Us	Photographers' Gintautas Trimakas, Petras Saulėnas, and Agne Jonkute exhibition dedicated to the 40th Anniversary of the Lithuanian Sea Museum. Curator dr. Tomas Pabedinskas.
The Baltic Sea Unites Us	International Forum, intended as a platform for professionals from outstanding Baltic Sea maritime museums and aquaria to discuss the trends of prospect, share best practices and experience.
Dangė Flotilla	Historical ships' parade during the Sea Festival in Klaipeda, presenting regional navigation traditions and cultural heritage with numerous edutainment activities to the public.
Sails Set for Independence	Conference dedicated to the 30th Anniversary of three Lithuanian yachts' voyage across the Atlantic in 1989, which was dedicated to restoration of independence of Lithuania.
From Collections of the Museum. Seashells	Catalogue presenting seashells of the Lithuanian Sea Museum's Sea Fauna Collection.
Warship Prezidentas Smetona: about the ship and her crew	A book presenting the first Lithuanian Naval ship, her history and the people who served on the board.
How to Manage Changes	Trainings for professional development of the museum's staff in the field of change management.
Preventive Restoration and Conservation of Museum Valuables	Conservation of museum valuables preserved in the Museum's Collection of Art.

Acquisition of Museum Valuables Reflecting the History of Lithuania as a Maritime State	The project aims at collecting and promoting museum valuables, and presenting them to the wide public in a digital format.